What is the value of a sterling silver flute, Wm. S. Haynes Co, Boston, Serial # 25902? If it were restored, its fair market value would be $1,900 - $3,000. My advice for selling this instrument is to do it locally. You can advertise in your local newspaper, on Craigslist, on the bulletin board of your local supermarket or on the bulletin board of a local music school. That way, you won't have to ship the flute.

That's something to take into consideration. Haynes flutes manufactured prior to the 1960s and their current lineup sell very well. It's that iffy period in the middle that some people are wary about. The replacement value (to buy a new one) is between $9-11k I am guessing. Flutes never resell for that kind of money.
