Without a doubt the iNET ZERO JNCIE-SEC workbook and mock lab have been a critical resource. The content is appropriately difficult and helps you approach a wide variety of complex scenarios. I would highly recommend that anyone perusing JNCIE certifications should include the workbook/lab and mock lab into their preparation resources, its well worth it.

Hello and welcome to the Certification/Training J-Net forum! I hope you find this forum helpful and interesting. I cannot comment on the iNet Zero products but can say that, like Proteus's offering, they are developed to complement and leverage the Juniper training (JNCIE bootcamps and JNCIP level courseware) as part of a complete approach to JNCIE prep. These materials are authored by ...

The workbook does not include any cabling or device information and most of the connections are point-to-point between SRX's and does not build a L2 architecture using switches. If you can get the workbook for $300 then maybe it is worth considering but for $500 it does not represent good value. I have not used the Inetzero workbook.
